More than half way through 2024 already!!

It has been a whirlwind of a year to date with plenty of activity and action all around. The team in South Africa have been on their toes with school visits, events, online meetings and corporate engagements.

This newsletter is packed with pictures and updates from our team and our beneficiaries.

We are very excited to announce that we will be hosting a fundraising event in London in November!

Don't forget there are a number of ways you can support or get involved with Bokamoso Education Trust. We look forward to your involvement and appreciate your continued support!

Team Activities and Updates

Megan, who is based in Johannesburg, South Africa has attended a number of events and engagements recently. Deloitte, South Africa, hosted a volunteer workshop for candidates working with non-profit organisations, providing critical insights and tools to assist with the impact they have in their communities. Thank you to Deloitte and their dedicated team for this valuable session. Megan also attended the Sparrow School Foundation Breakfast, a Rotary Presentation, as well as a cocktail function hosted by JSE for the Alexandra Education Committee.

Sara has focused on growing our mentor network and school relationships in the Western Cape. Together these two managers have been dynamic in meeting regularly with the schools, our beneficiaries and their parents, as well as with our mentors and corporate partners. Bokamoso would not be where it is today without these two crucial members of the team.

Megan attended the Sparrow Breakfast.

News from our beneficiaries

Christine obtained Gauteng Colours for Rhythmic Gymnastics and participated in a competition in Durban last month. Well done, Christine!

Hats off to Isiaah who received a Merit Award of level 5! He obtained the most merits in the school and broke the record for any boy to achieve this within the 1st term of the year.

Unathi was the voice behind our latest Bokamoso radio advert, arranged by Primedia for Cape Talk Radio. What an experience it was to be recorded in the studio!

1. Hezel in class, modelling shapes with playdough.
2. Ethan loves his school, math's, his friends and his teacher.
3. Sandile is doing Winter School with Bellavista.
4. Caitlin was selected to participate in the Regional Science Expo.

SAVE THE DATE: London Event

We are so excited to announce our upcoming event on the 21st of November! If you have been to one of our events before, would like to get to know the charity a bit better or just need a night out, you don't want to miss this!

Where: London, U.K.

Guest Speaker: Michael Charton, author of 'My Father's Coat'

More details to follow soon.

Get involved

Do you want to support Bokamoso but you are not sure how to get involved? Have you heard about the 4 guys that ran 7 marathons in 7 days in 7 countries and raised over £10,000? It doesn't have to be that crazy, but hey, we have a few ideas here that might inspire you:

- Coffee morning - ask friends to donate towards your favourite charity.
- Auction - get a few sponsored items (wine is always a good one) and organise an auction at work, your kid's school or your sports club.
- Miles for Bokamoso - choose to walk, run or cycle and ask friends to sponsor your miles on JustGiving.
- Birthday donation - instead of a gift, ask that friends donate towards Bokamoso.
- Run a marathon (choose any marathon) or ride Ride London Essex to raise funds for Bokamoso Education Trust. Send us an email to find out more.
